

Learner and Teacher Agency

Co-cognitive factors in the realisation of potential in young people.

In this series of workshops, participants will understand further, the concept of Co-cognitive factors in the realisation of potential in young people in the 21st century. They will learn how to foster co-cognitive skills in their learners and build their individual and group capacity to accomplish their community learning goals. All workshops will:

- be research- informed
- be informed by The Australian Curriculum
- combine theory with practical applications
- be accompanied by relevant reading resources
- employ a variety of Thinking, Learning and Questioning tools designed to promote understanding and transfer of important concepts, theories and ideas.

The core workshops will address:

- overview
- mindsets
- self-efficacy
- possible future selves

Optional workshops available:

- grit and curiosity
- dispositions
- resilience, optimism, service mindset, perfectionism

© J. E. Farrall, March 2018