

HO 3. Concept Attainment: Year 10 Philosophy Sem 2: Ethical Questions

Examine the following examples and non-examples to determine the common characteristics of Ethical Questions. List these in the box below.

Ethical questions	Not so ethical questions
<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Is abortion right or wrong?</li><li>2. How should we deal with child soldiers?</li><li>3. Do we have a moral obligation to future generations?</li><li>4. Is a good life for human beings the same as a good life for animals?</li><li>5. Can war be ethical?</li><li>6. How important is ethics in sport?</li><li>7. Should vaccinations be mandatory for everyone?</li><li>8. Your son likes to wear dresses. One day, he asks if he can wear one to school. Will you let him?</li></ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Are the Crows better footballers than Port Power?</li><li>2. What colour ribbon should I wear?</li><li>3. How far is it to Broken Hill?</li><li>4. Should I eat a ham or egg sandwich?</li><li>5. Which Prime Minister has left the most disappointing legacy?</li><li>6. When was the Magna Carta signed?</li><li>7. What is the meaning of the word, verbatim?</li><li>8. Is everything we do determined by forces outside our control?</li></ol>

<https://custom-writing.org/blog/ethics-essay-topics-and-questions-to-write-about>

List characteristics of ethical questions here: